

KLove is a great radio station to listen to. My whole family can listen to it and I don't have to worry about what is being said. The music is Christ centered and so is our family, so it hits us where we need it to. It is a great addition to our community and would be a great loss without it.